NOTE TO: Director of Central Intelligence
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

SBJECT: Policy Support Biweekly

Attached is the first issue of a new, and still experimental, publication that we are distributing today to members of the Policy Review Group (PRG) plus Colin Powell. It is designed to provide a perspective we cannot always offer in our daily publications and other products, on issues the PRG frequently considers or is likely to consider. The particular subjects treated will change from issue to issue, although many of them will be covered repeatedly. Please give me any reactions you have. (S NF)
